Grandstand K is particularly esteemed as it offers a fantastic vantage point of the circuit, plus a sweeping panorama of the marina. There's also a giant screen to enhance your viewing experience. Saturday's schedule is packed with racing action. The day starts with free practice and the qualifying stage takes place in the afternoon, with the drivers gearing up to secure their place on the grid and fight it out for pole position. Guests will also be gifted a Crystal backpack and cap to use throughout the day, and to keep as a souvenir of this unforgettable experience. After the last race, you'll walk back to Fontvieille for the return transfer to the ship. This is the best option for race enthusiasts who want the best vantage points to follow the action.
